EXPERIENCE

Face the world, my friend,
Cower not;
A new life is waiting for you.
Have no fear whatsoever;
There'll be happiness found in each new endeavor
And the world will go on.

Enjoy the world, my friend;
It's God's gift.
Live to learn in this world—
Learn to live on this earth
full of mysteries—things never before realized.
Feel the breeze as it blows through green fields;
Look up at the deep blue sky covered with waves of clouds.
Never let the stars lose their wonder
As you gaze at night upon them.

Change the world, my friend;
Hesitate not.
Think of violince, poverty, suffering;
Challenge the world; leave your mark.
Though the future cannot be foreseen
Let your impressions remain in it.
Let them be yours alone.
Judge not your mark in size,
For no matter how small or large,
Each can say, "It's mine."

1972 "NORDAHI" Staff

"Where is my correct-o-type?"

Amy Hinkle and Randy Craver discuss the Sports Section.

"Don't tell them I'm using that picture!"

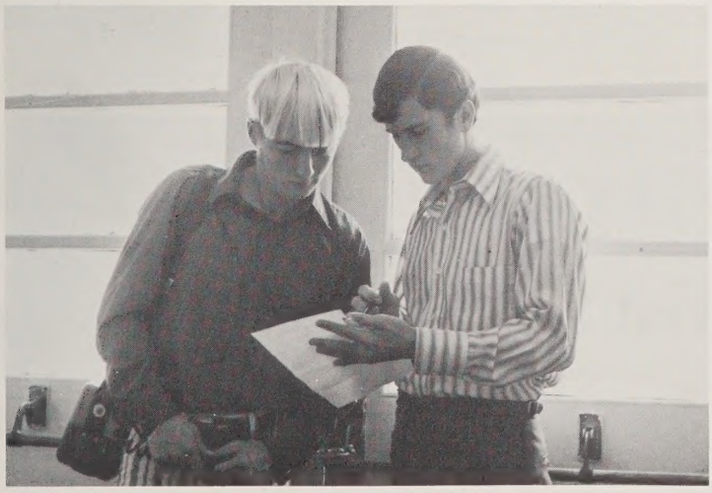
This picture just will not fit."

Debbie Huffman spends all her time working on the Club Section.

ALIVE . . . MOVING . . . a staff of 25 dedicated students . . . each group filling their sections with their own creative ideas . . . two Co-Editors . . . two advisors . . . everyone sharing the work and worry . . . planning dummies . . . writing copy . . . taking pictures . . . cropping pictures . . . checking layouts . . . the 1st deadline, the 2nd, the 3rd, the last . . . three months to wait . . . and worry . . . the annual is back . . . the Nordahi Staff-pleased with their publication . . . for the Seniors-their last year on the staff . . . for the Juniors and Sophomores-more work and worry . . . they must be ALIVE . . . and keep it MOVING . . . . . .

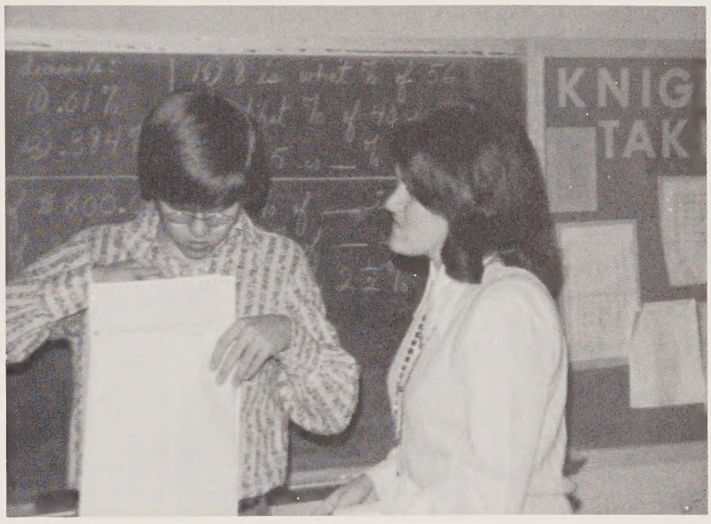
"We can't take this anymore."

"You mean we spent that much money!"

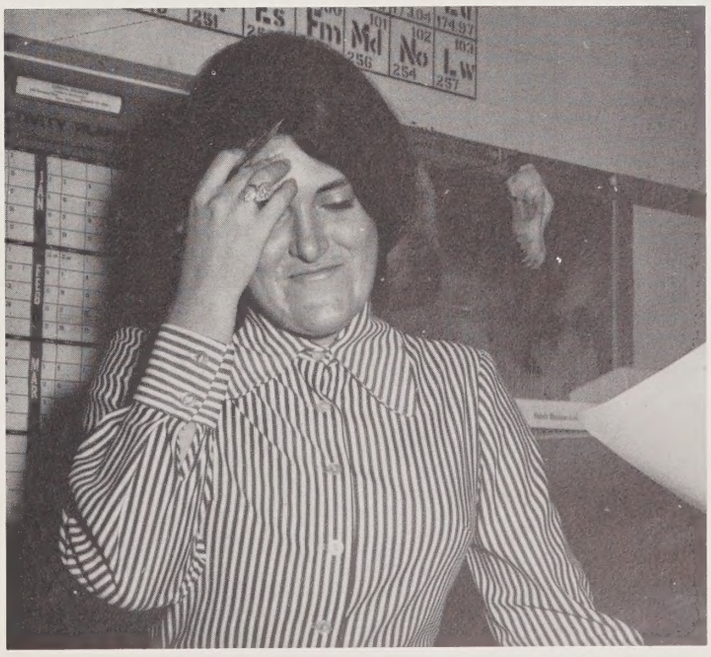


"Do you want me to take those pictures?"

"Oh no! When can we make re-takes!"

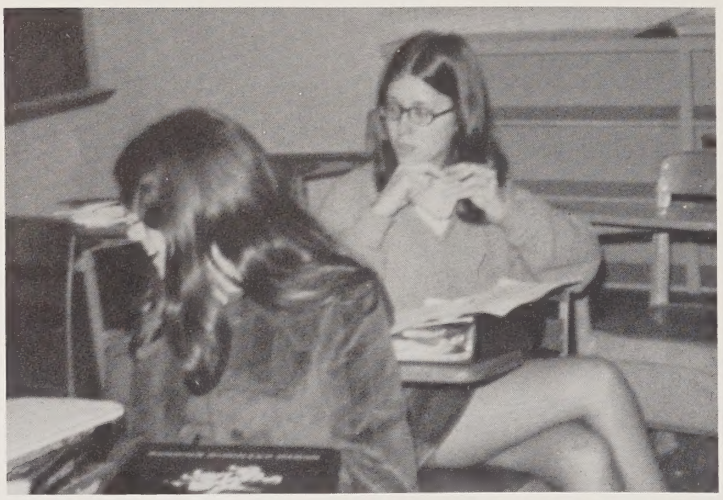


"I think I put it in here!"



"After this I will need a long vacation!"

"This is none of your business!"



"This staff is unbelievable!"

"Do you think Miss Vickers would let us leave?"

"I'll be finished in a minute!"

"Annual Staff is one big laugh!"

Bobby Koonts adds up the bills.

"Hurry, here comes Miss Vickers!"

"Now I know what I forgot!"

"Not again!"

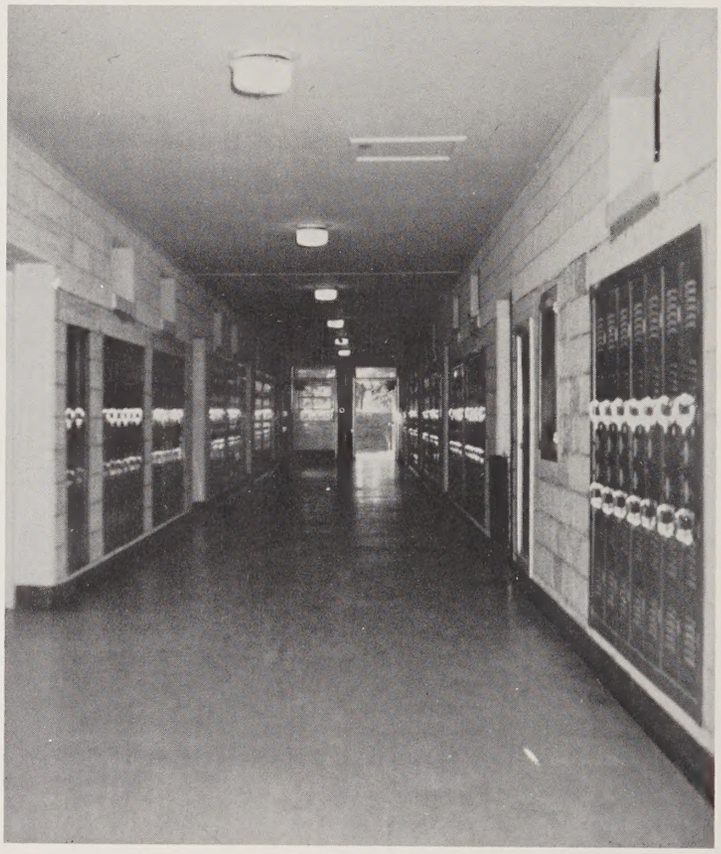
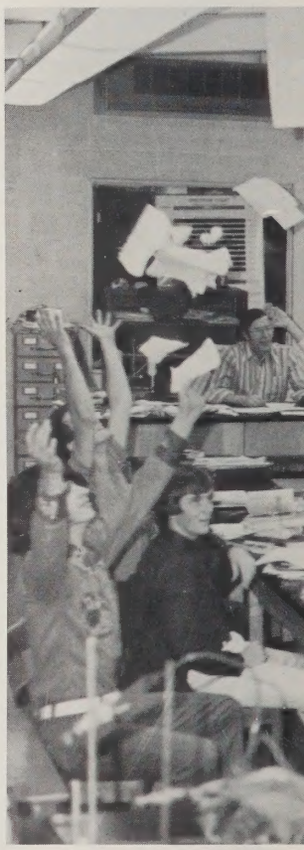
Walking away . . .

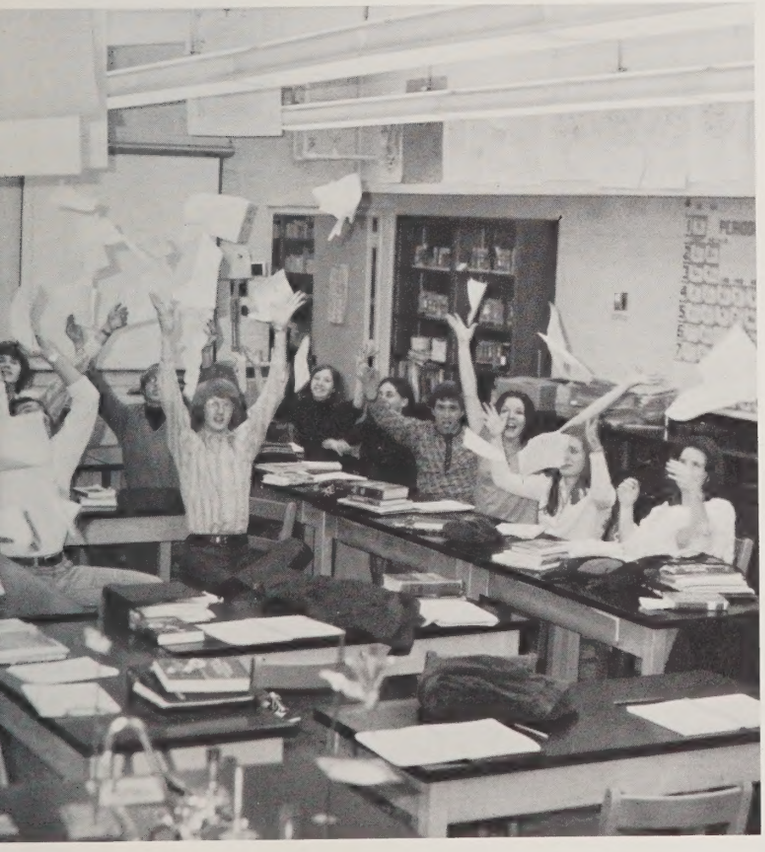
Turning to look back . . .

That's when we realize . . .

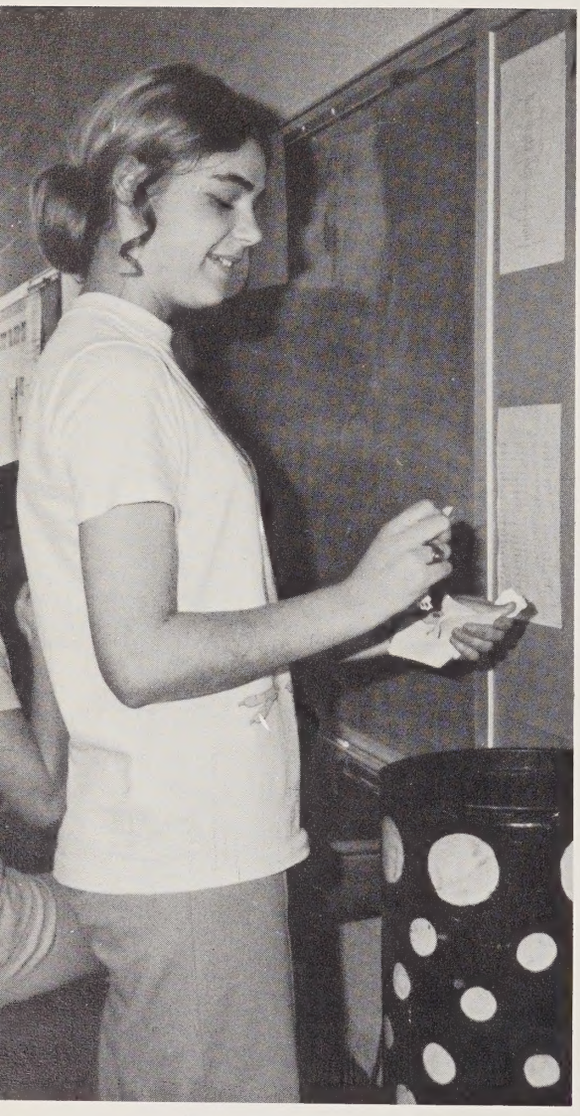
What North has meant to us . . .

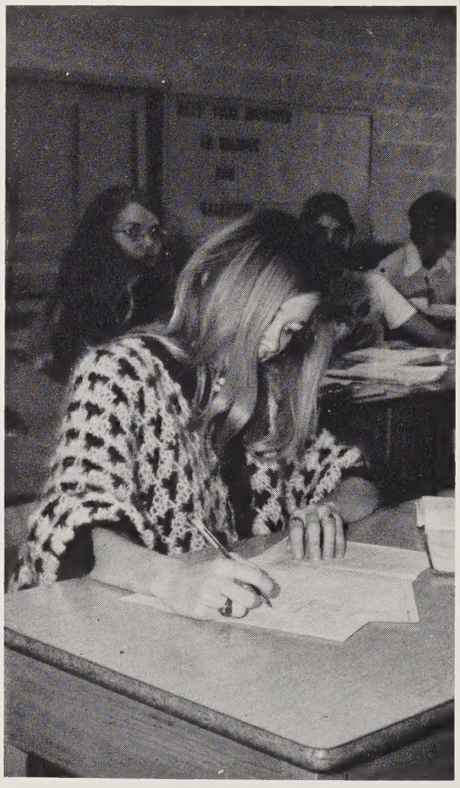


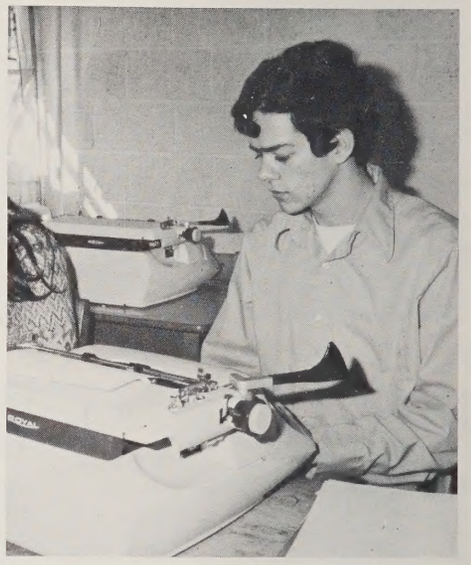


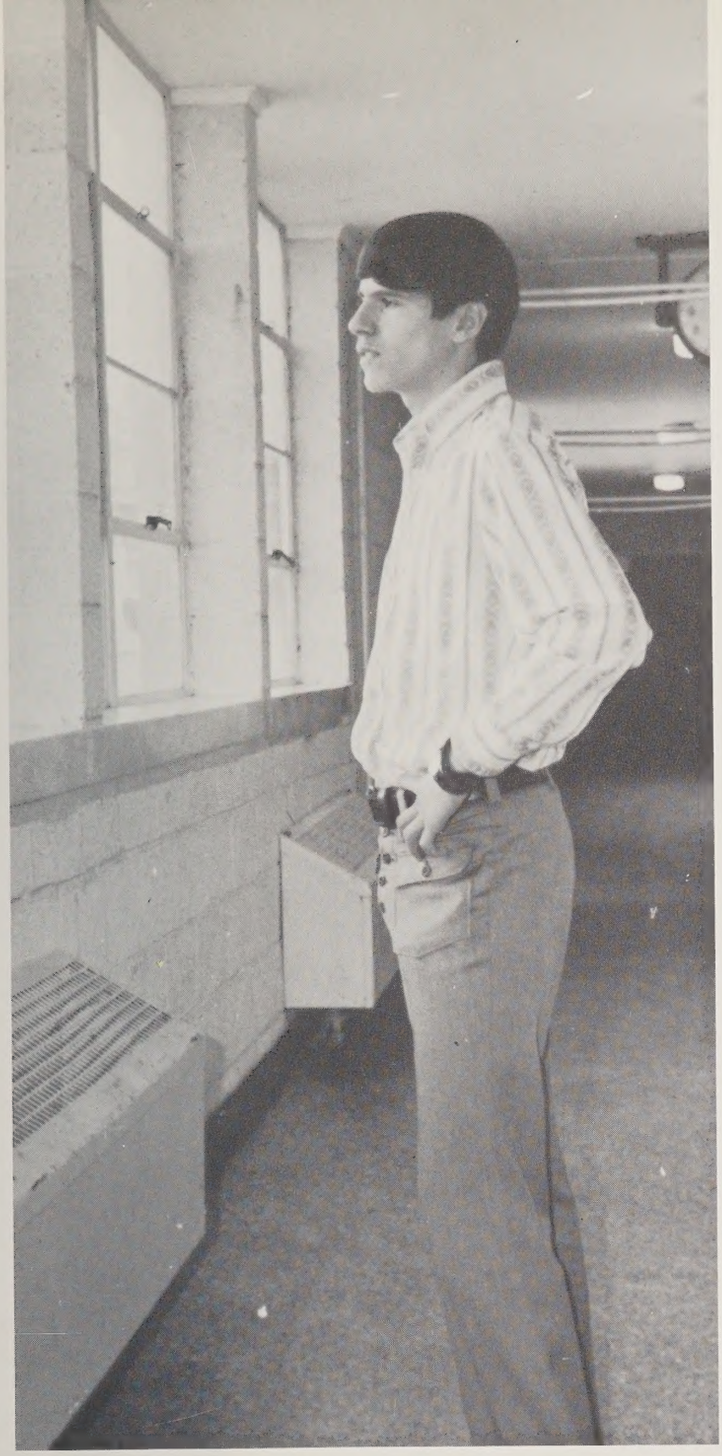


It's been . . .
Three years of learning . . .
Three years of doing . . .
Three years of being myself among people I love . . .
I'm sad I'm leaving . . .
But I'm glad I'm through!









Maybe I've moved ahead . . .

Maybe not . . .

Maybe I've accomplished a little .

Will it be enough?

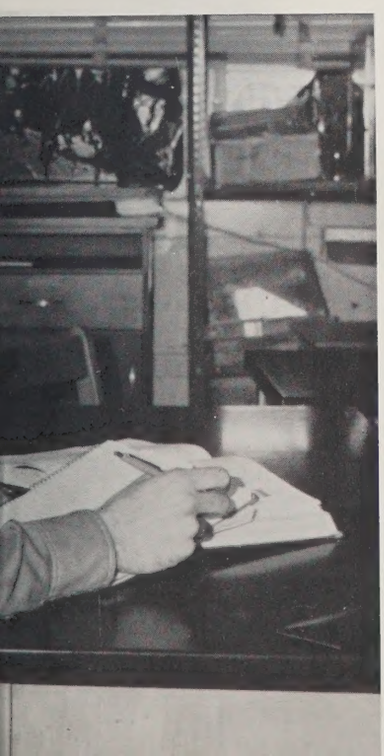
I'm a little wiser . . .
and a lot happier now . . .

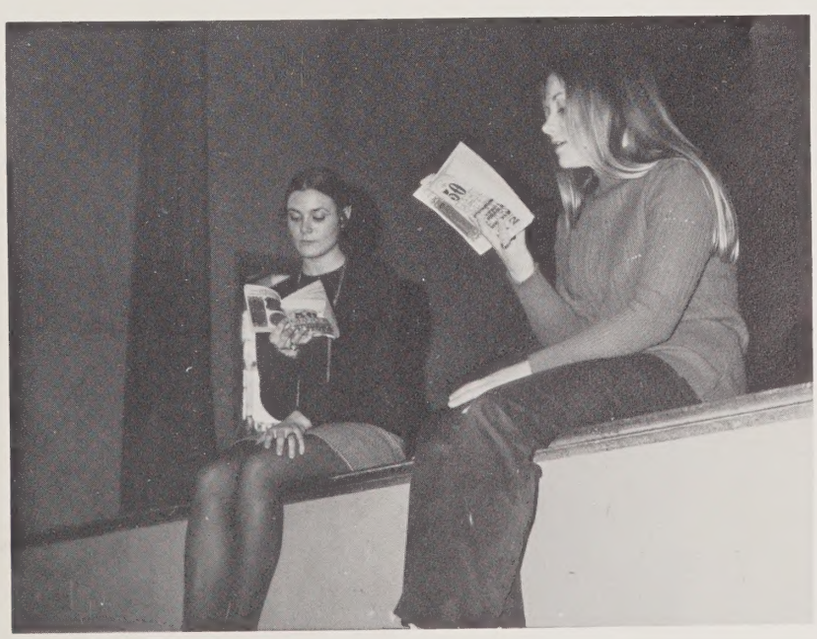
But through it all . . .
I've realized . . .

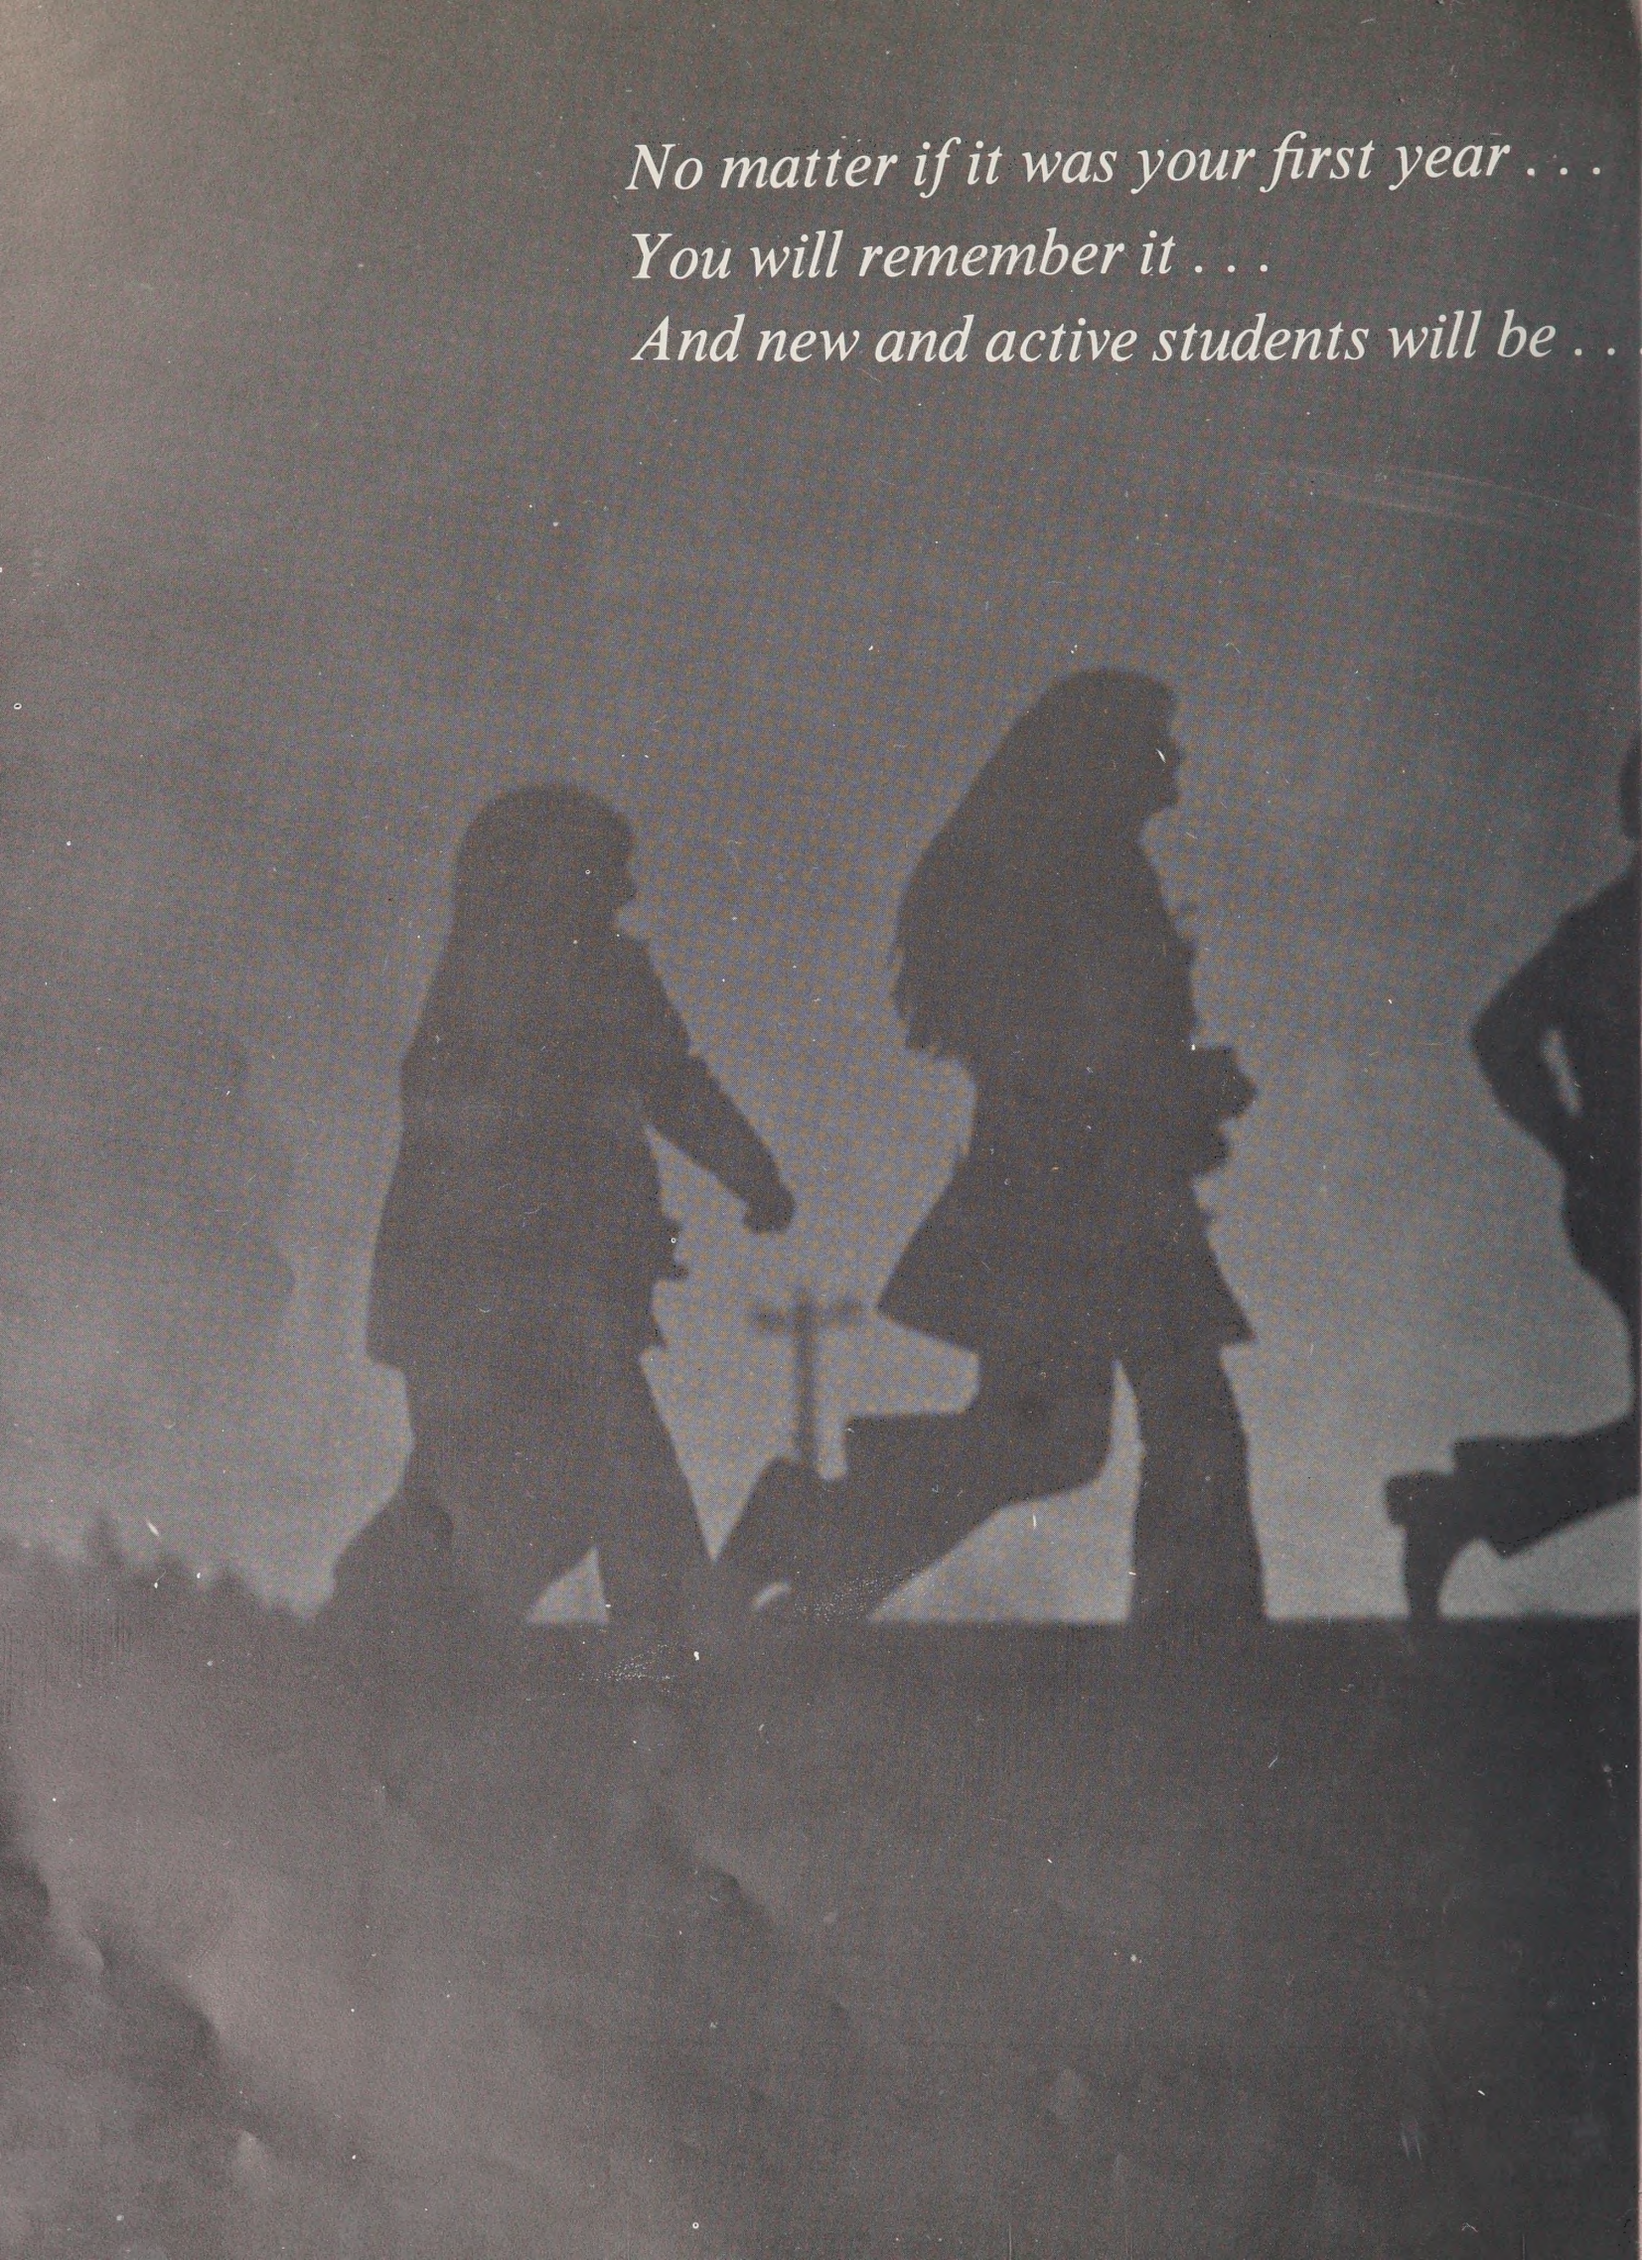
That I've gained maturity . . .
of self and mind . . .

Yes, there have been changes . . .
for the better . . .

I hope!







No matter if it was your first year . . .
You will remember it . . .
And new and active students will be . . .

your second . . . or your last . . .

ALIVE . . . and keep North MOVING . . .

ALIVE. . .MOVING. . .two words that fully describe the 1972 Nordahi Staff . . .ALIVE. . .MOVING. . .two words that "say it all" about our school, our faculty, our students. . . . . .ALIVE . . .MOVING. . .two words that will symbolize our lives from now on!

We, the Co-Editors of the 1972 Nordahi Staff, would like to thank everyone who has made it possible for this annual to be published. It has been developed through the patience co-operation, and hard work of the complete staff. We feel that this annual could never have been published without the supervision of our two advisors, Miss Brenda Vickers and Miss Ella Matthews. This experience has been challenging and rewarding to everyone involved and we hope that you will mark our 1972 Nordahi a success.

Co-Editors,
Amy Hinkle
